DISCOVER THE UNEXPECTED AT HERITAGE ON THE MARINA
SEE AND DO IT ALL

Other retirement communities are isolated from the world. Heritage on the Marina is set in one of the most exciting cities today. San Francisco is a dense collection of shops, landmarks, eateries and so much more. Our active retirement community is in the middle of the city. Venture outside for even five minutes, & you might find a farmer's market & grassy park to enjoy.

Several museums, including the Fort Mason Center for Arts & Culture, reside near our property. There's eclectic landmarks too. Lombard Street, cable-car turnarounds and the Galileo Academy of Science and Technology are nearby as well.
ENTICE YOUR PALATE

Dining is an experience that’s unsurpassed at Heritage on the Marina. Stroll into our dining room, and the delectable options are endless. Our property offers all-day dining with exquisite attention paid to each meal.

Breakfast might involve salmon and capers with dinner as the spectacle after you order chicken coq au vin. Our food is world-renowned, which means that your palate will always be excited.

Remember that the surrounding neighborhood is also full of dining options. Enjoy Bobo’s with their steakhouse expertise. Vegetarians rejoice at Greens along the waterfront. With so many restaurants nearby, you can eat various cuisines over a single week without repeating one. Dining in or outside of our property is part of the excitement at Heritage on the Marina.

DREAM ALONG THE WATER'S EDGE

You're practically on the water with a home at Heritage. Watch the bicyclists fly by on the pathway outlining San Francisco Bay. Take a trip over to the Golden Gate Bridge. The fog that rolls in on most days is a sight to see.

As a member of our active retirement community, you also have access to the various piers along the water's edge. Hyde Street Pier and Pier 39 are just a few minutes away. Take a stroll
If you're a shopping fan, you'll have plenty of opportunities to find hidden treasures. Tourist shops near Fisherman's Wharf might give you a thrill. Look for more shopping up on the hill or even into Downtown San Francisco.

When you're looking for a particular shopping trip, speak to our representatives. We can set up reliable transportation across town if necessary. Most of the excitement in San Francisco, however, is nestled right around our property. Stepping outside your door is the only effort necessary.

Our property gives you every luxury possible, but without a huge price tag. Please speak to our knowledgeable staff about residency options. Keep in mind that we are a Medicare-approved property. Part of your residency costs can be paid by this government program. Visit us for a tour, and then discuss payment options. We can put together a plan that works for your needs. In many cases, Medicare pays up to 40 percent of your costs. We must simply determine your eligibility based on your particular background.

Retirement is your time to shine. Our property & surrounding neighborhood invite you to explore a world of excitement and beauty. Be part of a community that welcomes and supports you from day one. Contact Heritage on the Marina today. Download the brochure for even more exciting information.
FALL IN LOVE WITH HERITAGE

From the moment that you gaze up at our property, you know it’s something special. The buildings were designed by Julia Morgan, who’s known for her work on Hearst Castle. With architecture that stands the test of time, your gaze might venture to the grounds. Grassy areas with comfortable benches dot our property. Strolling through the gardens is just the start of your retirement adventure.

Heritage is owned by a nonprofit society, which means that business isn’t part of our culture. Your enjoyment is our primary goal.

A COMMUNITY UNLIKE ANY OTHER

Heritage offers apartments that range from studios to two-bedroom arrangements. Monthly fees cover the apartment as well as the amenities. The excitement doesn't reside within the living spaces, however.

Our community of residents will welcome you to the property from the very first day. Residents choose Heritage for a variety of reasons. At the heart of these reasons is a respect and love for the property. Everyone treats you like family from the very start. Introduce yourself to just one resident, and friendships begin in seconds. Part of our allure is the caring individuals who make up the community every day.
FOCUSING ON WELL-BEING

Our property offers healthcare options, such as assisted living, so that you have a mixture of support and independence at any age. Discuss your personal needs with our team. Heritage is a Medicare-approved property, which means your costs are partially covered.

Enjoy top-notch care, exciting daytime activities and restful nights. These services support healthy individuals who're ready to explore every day with enthusiasm.

OUR MISSION

The Cannery, Anchorage Square and Fisherman's Wharf are just a few of the shopping areas available to our residents. You might find touristy items, but look closer into the smaller shops. Amazing items created and sold within the city are part of the shopping excitement.

Attractions that are renowned the world over are also within a few minutes travel time from Heritage. The Ghirardelli Square is home to tasty chocolate treats, which might give you a sugary boost as you ride out to Alcatraz Island. Learn about this historical landmark as you gaze out over the water to the numerous bridges stretching across the landscape.
Our all-day dining is world-renowned for its variety and quality. Enjoy every meal here, or try the dozens of restaurants that surround the property. From sushi to prime rib, dining options at Heritage are vast. We always focus on taste and well-rounded meals. Improving your health through nutritious meals is part of our dedication to our residents.
SAN FRANCISCO'S CULTURE WELCOMES YOU

Explore the cultures outside of Heritage's property. The 1960s vibe is still alive and well near the Haight-Ashbury intersection. Venture over to Chinatown where amazing meals and foods will tempt your taste buds.

The city continues to swell with so many different types of people that taking a cable car around town can give you a different experience every time. Find out when local parades and concerts are being held. Both the city and waterfront are prime areas for unique entertainment. Our Heritage property stands in the middle of a city that welcomes everyone from each corner of the world.

Contact Heritage on the Marina today. Our community will welcome you with open arms. Take a step toward a memorable retirement. High-class meals and entertainment are awaiting your presence.
